See you all there!

In St. Joseph's Church there will be an adjustment in Mass times In July and August. On Monday to Friday of each week there will be one morning Mass at 9.00am and the evening Mass will be at the usual time of 7.30pm. This will come into effect on Friday the 1st of July. Mass times on Saturday and Sunday will continue as per usual.

The second collection next week-end, 25/26 of June, will be the annual Peter's Pence collection.

A Triduum in honour of Our Mother of Perpetual Help will be held in St. Joseph's Church on the 23rd (Thursday); 24th (Friday) and 25th (Saturday) of June. On Thursday and Friday Mass/Novena times are 9.30am and 7.30pm. The Triduum will conclude on Saturday at 9.30am. This Triduum will mark the conclusion of the Jubilee Year of celebration of the reception of the original icon by the Redemptorists in 1866. Just a month ago we had the specially commissioned icon of OMPH in St. Joseph's for a week-end and many people came to venerate it. All are welcome to take part in this Triduum which is another opportunity to express our devotion to the Mother of God who, as the icon illustrates, points the way to the Saviour.

Monday, 20th of June, is the memorial of The Irish Martyrs. Seventeen Irish people, men and women, cleric and lay were put to death for the Catholic faith between 1579 and 1654 and were beatified in 1992 by Pope John Paul II.

Amongst these were Dermot Hurley – Archbishop of Cashel, John Kearney (a Franciscan), William Tirry (an Augustinian), Francis Taylor (mayor of Dublin), Matthew Lambert (a baker from Wexford) and Margaret Birmingham (Dublin).

Friday, 24th of June, is the feast of The Nativity of St. John the Baptist. John used the expression - 'He must increase, I must decrease' in a reference to Jesus and that was a summary of his life's mission. He helped prepare the way and placed the focus on Jesus, who was sent by the Father to proclaim the Good News of salvation.

The Migraine Association of Ireland is holding an Information evening on the 20th of June in the Crowne Plaza Hotel from 7pm to 9pm, to which you are cordially invited. There will be a presentation and then time for questions. Admission is free. To register please call 1850 200 378 or email info@migraine.ie.
