Pope Francis in his exhortation about marriage and the family says: A love that is weak or infirm, incapable of accepting marriage as a challenge to be taken up and fought for, reborn, renewed and reinvented until death, cannot sustain a great commitment. It will succumb to the culture of the ephemeral that prevents a constant process of growth. (Par. 124)

The Feast of St. Anthony of Padua is celebrated on the 13th of June. He was born in Lisbon and joined the Franciscans and he was a contemporary of St. Francis. His missionary life was varied and he eventually worked in the Italian city of Padua. He was noted for his knowledge of the Scriptures and for his preaching. He died in the year 1231.
