Blessing of the Graves Broadcast - St Patricks Cemetery, Dowdallshill. Sunday 16th July @ 3 p.m. A new initiative is being rolled out this year to broadcast the St. Patricks Cemetery, Dowdallshill, Blessing of the Graves. With the support of the Parish Administrators & Louth County Council, Dundalk FM will be broadcasting the service live on air. Those attending the service on the day are advised to bring a radio, smart phone or Bluetooth speaker to tune in and hear the service as it happens. The programme will be 2 hours long and will be carried on FM and the Internet and available to listen to again as a podcast on the Dundalk FM webpage. As well as broadcasting one of the most significant events in the Dundalk area, it will also enable those in the wider community who are unable to attend to tune in and listen to the service.

Pope Francis in his exhortation about marriage and the family says: The love of friendship unifies all aspects of marital life and helps family members to grow constantly. This love must be freely and generously expressed in words and acts. In the family three words need to be used and I want to repeat this. Three words - 'Please-, 'Thank You' and 'Sorry'. (paragraph 133).

The Feast of St. Benedict (480-543) is on the 11th of July. He had a huge influence on the development of the monastic 3 life in Europe. Benedictines (for example in Glenstal, Co. Limerick) and Cistercians (for example in Collon, Co. Louth) follow the Rule which he established. The Benedictines have made a big contribution to the development of the liturgy. In 1964 Benedict was named patron of Europe. ***********
