* The Icon of our Mother of Perpetual Help: Last week- * * end a large number of people came to reverence the icon at St. *
* Joseph's and it was good to see that. The pilgrimage continued * * during the week in Armagh, Newry and Belfast. On this * * Sunday, feast of Pentecost, the pilgrimage concludes at the * * Redemptorist Church in Clonard. We are grateful for all the * * graces received through the intercession of Our Mother of * * Perpetual Help. The icon contains many details but the central * * message is that Mary points the way to her son Jesus, the *
* Saviour of the world. *

The Feast of Pentecost is one of the major feasts of the liturgical year.
The outpouring of the Holy Spirit enables the Church to carry out its mission. Each one of us is gifted by the Holy Spirit to contribute to the mission of announcing and witnessing to the Good News that Jesus proclaimed. This can happen in very simple and direct ways, for example, through prayer, friendship, a community spirit, a commitment to the most vulnerable amongst us by living the corporal and spiritual works of mercy.
Let us discover the gifts with which we have been blessed, cherish and nurture them and place them at the service of the community. 'Send forth your Spirit o Lord, and renew the face of the earth.'

We welcome into the Family of God the recently baptised:

Parish Visitation
continues on Barrack St., Hyde Park, the Point Road and the estates linked to this road.

Easter Time comes to an end at the feast of Pentecost. On Monday (the 16th of May) Ordinary time is resumed. Until the end of the Liturgical Year - the feast of Christ the King on the 20th of November - the Sunday reading of the Gospel will be taken from St. Luke's Gospel with just one or other exception.
