About the Gospel

Today's reading from the Gospel according to John immediately follows John the Baptist's testimony about Jesus and his identification of Jesus as the Lamb of God. Having been baptized by John, Jesus begins to gather followers. The first followers sought out Jesus because of the testimony and witness of John the Baptist. Jesus asks Andrew and the other disciple, "What are you looking for?" This is a telling question, and one that we might often ask of ourselves. What do we look for and what do we find in Jesus?

Adapted Novena Prayer to Our Lady of Perpetual Help

Mother of Perpetual Help, with the greatest confidence we come before your holy picture to beseech your intercession. We think of you, Mother, at the foot of the cross. Your heart must have bled to see your Son in agony. But your joy was great when he rose from the dead, victorious over the powers of evil. Mother of Sorrows, pray for us in this time of trial Help us not to lose heart. Intercede for your people who are afflicted with Coronavirus. Comfort your people who are vulnerable and anxious. Protect healthcare workers who put their lives at risk. Inspire our leaders to make good decisions. Change our hearts that all may act responsibly. Teach us to trust in God’s love and mercy. And so share with you the joy of having courageously faced up to all the challenges of life. Amen.

Adapted Spiritual Communion of St Alphonsus

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Blessed Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire you in life. I cannot now receive you sacramentally. Come into my heart spiritually and let your spirit fill me and pray in me. I embrace you and unite myself to you completely. Amen.

Stay Safe. Pray Safe

Our Church remains open for private prayer. Please continue to follow all precautions and do not approach others inside the church. Please know that the Redemptorist Community at St Joseph’s are in solidarity with you all. Please care for each other, and keep contact especially with the housebound and more vulnerable. This is time for solidarity, care, kindness, creativity and responsibility. Please pray for all front line healthcare and others workers and may God protect us all.
