Pope Francis: 'Hope is not for one person alone, hope is something we do together! We must keep hope alive together, all of you, and all of us, who are so far away.'

The Feast of All Saints is celebrated on the 1st of November (Friday). We will have Mass on the vigil (Thursday) at 7.30pm and on the feast (Friday) at 8.30am and 9.30am. This feast is a reminder of what the Second Vatican Council described as the 'universal call to holiness', that is, that all people are called to be holy, or in other words, committed to being faithful disciples of the Lord.

The Commemoration of the Faithful Departed (All Souls Day) is on the 2nd of November (Saturday). Mass at 9.30am. We pray for our dead on a daily basis but today are reminded how important it is to do so, and, in a special way, throughout the month of November.. 'It is a holy and a wholesome thought to pray for the dead'.

A Hundred Thousand Welcomes? Is the title of a letter recently published by the Irish Bishops. Over the next number of weeks, excerpts will appear in the bulletin. 'Ireland's tradition of hospitality - céad míle fáilte - faces challenges due to rising immigration, which has exposed longstanding societal issues like housing, homelessness, and gaps in social services. These challenges existed before immigration became a prominent issue, but some fearful and angry voices now call for closing borders. However, the Irish people, conscious of our own history of migration and Christian faith, must continue to welcome newcomers. Many immigrants bring valuable skills and talents, while others seek support for a better future.'

Collection and Envelopes: Last week-end's collection was €2,801.43. This has been sent to Mission Ireland to support missionary projects overseas. The parish envelope collection for the last two weeks was €795.61. Thank you as always for your generosity.

The Mass of the Angels was very well attended last Sunday. Contributions came to €1230.00 which has been divided between the Maternity Units in Our Lady of Lourdes Hospital Drogheda and of Daisy Hill Hospital, Newry. And again, thank you for your generosity.

Lectio Divina is a reflective way of reading the scriptures and has helped many people in their efforts to appreciate God's word. Those interested are welcome to join a group in St. Joseph's Monastery at 7.30pm on Wednesdays.

Mission in Cameroon: to support this mission come to the Lisdoon on Thursday, 31st of October at 8pm for social dancing. Music by Magic Moments.

Halloween Family Fun Day, Wednesday 30th of October, 11am-2pm in St. Gerard's Hall. An initiative of Youth Ministry.

The Serenity Prayer

God grant me the serenity to accept things I cannot change, the courage to change the things I can and the wisdom to know the difference.
